

Please DO NOT take away the NO CALL list. It is essential that consumers are protected from intrusions in their own homes. Bankers will just have to find another way to communicate.